RULES and REGULATIONS: Boer Goats

1. All exhibitors are subject to the general rules and livestock rules, in addition to the particular rules listed here.
2. The American Boer Goat Association (ABGA) sanction show rules shall govern. The ABGA will accept and permanently record all wins in shows that have been determined to have met all requirements for ABGA Sanction.
3. Any show receiving ABGA sanctioning shall be open to all exhibitors, however only two premiums are paid per exhibitor, per class. ABGA sanction cannot require animals to sell in a sale as a condition of participating in the show.
4. All goats must be registered in the herdbook of a recognized association before the time specified by the show. Recognized associations include ABGA, IBGA, USBGA, and CBGA. Original registration certificates are required, though a copy of Registration Application stamped with the date received by one of the listed Associations, can be accepted for kids less than 3 months of age. Animals must be registered in the name of exhibitor and must have been owned by the exhibitor on or before date determined by said show.
5. Only their ABGA Certificate of Registration will be eligible to earn points for as its permanent identification, the Exhibitor is responsible for providing a microchip reader.
6. All goats must have legible tattoos or other means of identification consistent with its registration certificate, or the animal will be disqualified. The top 5 in the class plus the champion and the reserve champion goat's tattoos must be read and recorded. If the animal has a microchip as its permanent identification, the Exhibitor is responsible for providing a microchip reader.
7. Birth dates, as listed on the registration certificate, will be used to determine the class divisions.
8. All animals must be registered purebred, fullblood or percentage blood Boer Goats. Progeny of fresh does will not be allowed in the ring. At the discretion of the judge and the superintendent, goats may be let loose in the ring as a function of judging.

9. Any goat showing any pronounced defect or abnormality will be barred from the show in any breeding classes. Artificial coloring will be a disqualification as well as illegible tattoos or tattoos that are inconsistent with the goats registration papers. Any doe over 24 months of age that has not kidded and cannot prove a current pregnancy will not be allowed in the ring. Horns are acceptable.
10. Exhibitors must provide own feed and hay. Note: Storage is very limited and no more than one tack area will be planned for any area. Please provide your own storage. All aisles must remain accessible for fair patrons.
11. Pen fees of $7 per pen is in effect. All pen fees will be held during the week of the fair. After 4 pm on Saturday, exhibitors shall have the option of cleaning pens to have the fee returned. Any pen fees not returned shall go to the charitable organization that have registered their name of interest in cleaning the remainder of pens to receive these funds. Exhibitors will be notified that their entries have been accepted and given the number of pens for this department only. Also, provided will be the name of the organization to make checks payable at check-in time. Notification of pens may be given upon arrival; exhibitors are to be prepared in case notification of the amount due is not given. No animals will be checked-in until the exhibitor pays their pen fee(s).
12. Each exhibitor will receive one Season Pass for 1-5 animals entered, two Season Passes for 6-10 animals, and three Season Passes for 11 or more animals. The Superintendent is the only person in this department with passes. Any other passes needed must be purchased at the Fair Office for the amount indicated for the type of pass.
